

Foreman

Includes all areas from laborer and concrete finisher requirements and the following additional requirements:

Leads a construction crew; responsible for equipment and tools; plan work ahead of the day and work with your men; fill out and turn in all paperwork in an efficiently timely manner on a daily basis; reads specifications (such as blueprints and data) to determine construction requirements; Locates, measures, and marks location and placement of structures and equipment; trains workers in construction methods and operation of equipment